Mr Lloyd Garrison

Dear Friend

Being

189

aware ~~of~~ of the invitation extended to you, and of your acceptance of the same, to deliver a lecture in this City sometime about the middle of this month, I can assure you it has given us much pleasure to feel that you are once more coming West, and especially that you are coming under much more favorable auspices than when you last visited Warren, the march of progress since then has indeed been wonderful, and Halls that were then too success for your feet to tread. will now be thrown wide open and a cordial welcome given thru these few lines to extend to you and whoever may be your travelling companions a cordial invitation to make my House your home during your stay in Union Msboro join with me in kind regards to yourself and family. hoping soon to take you by the hand

Remain

Yours Truly
Woodward Allen
